PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A People Transformed by the Gospel of Grace

WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS CHURCH!

We are thankful you are here this morning! If you're visiting with us, we hope that you feel welcome.

All Saints Church's worship includes a formal liturgy. Liturgy (literally meaning "the work of the people") is the structured way in which God's people worship Him. What that means is that at some points in the service we'll take time to be quiet and pray, at other times we'll respond together with song or Scripture, and still, at other times, we'll take in the spoken Word of God.

Our liturgy is shaped by the same storyline of Scripture. We were created in the image of God, to reflect His love. We have corrupted love by living for ourselves instead of living for God and we deserve God's judgment. God demonstrates his gracious love for us by redeeming sinners through the death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus. We anticipate our final home and kingdom where God's love will be fully expressed and experienced. We give thanks to God who spared from the loveless place of hell and given us the joyous place of eternal life with Him.

We ask that you participate in whatever manner comfortable for you. Sometimes people may raise their hands in praise during worship, others might close their eyes, others may appear more solemn. We would also encourage you to bring your own natural speaking voice and expressive style to the mix as we recite Scripture, sing and respond together. It's a picture of the variety in which God created us.

If you are with us via webinar, should you have any difficulties with the connection or sound, please don't hesitate to let us know so that we can improve the streaming experience. We love having you here worshipping with us. May the LORD bless you richly today in worship together of the God of love. And may you know how deeply you are loved.

- The All Saints Church Family

WHO IS ALL SAINTS CHURCH?

We are a people of God, sinners made saints by the gift of grace through Jesus Christ's perfect life, substituting death and conquering resurrection. Together as the people of God, the Church, we walk according to His Holy Spirit through our dependency upon the life-giving means of grace: His Word, His sacraments, fellowship and prayer.

WHY ARE WE HERE?

To enjoy and proclaim the grace and glory of God in our everyday lives of worship in order to display the love of Jesus and the hope of His gospel transformation to the lives of individuals, families, the community of Green Bay and the world.

HOW WILL WE LIVE OUT THIS MISSION & VISION?

By trusting in God to bring Gospel transformation to our own lives and the lives of our neighbor through:

GOSPEL-SHAPED WORSHIP, GRACE-DEPENDENT DISCIPLESHIP, & A FAITHFUL PRESENCE IN OUR COMMUNITY

WE ENTER HIS COURTS WITH PRAISE

PRELUDE

Come O Sinner

Oh the wonder of this awesome scene, where our Savior bleeds.

Oh the power of the love of God, come and stand in awe.

QUOTES FOR REFLECTION

Christ said "it is finished" and by that he meant that whatever his people owed was wiped away forever from the book of remembrance. - Charles Spurgeon

After creation, God said "it is finished" and he rested. After redemption, Jesus said "it is finished" and we can rest. - Tim Keller

WELCOME

Pastor Chad Baudhuin

TIME OF SILENCE

Please stand. Parents - please know that in our times of silence, we understand if young ones have difficulty remaining quiet. We consider their presence in worship with us a welcomed thing and a "joyful noise."

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 69: 34-36

Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and everything that moves in them.

For God will save Zion and build up the cities of Judah,
and people shall dwell there and possess it;

The offspring of his servants shall inherit it,
and those who love his name shall dwell in it.

Gospel-shaped worship is a core value of All Saints Church.

We want the truth of the story of God's redemption to be seen in everything we say, pray, sing and do.

The seasons are a time to remember God's story of redemption.

Today is the sixth Sunday after Pentecost called "Ordinary Time," where we as a church are equipped with God's Spirit to continue Christ's ministry in the world.

CHRIST'S FINAL BREATH WAS A VICTORY CRY

SONG OF ADORATION

Were You There/How Deep The Father's Love For Us

Were you there
When they crucified my Lord?
Were you there
When they crucified my Lord?

Oh sometimes it causes me to tremble
Tremble, tremble.
Were you there
When they crucified my Lord?

How deep the Father's love for us
How vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure

How great the pain of searing loss
The Father turns His face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One
Bring many sons to glory

Behold the Man upon a cross
My sin upon His shoulders
Ashamed I hear my mocking voice
Call out among the scoffers

It was my sin that held Him there
Until it was accomplished
His dying breath has brought me life
I know that it is finished

I will not boast in anything
No gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom
But I will boast in Jesus Christ
His death and resurrection

Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer
But this I know with all my heart
His wounds have paid my ransom

Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer
But this I know with all my heart
His wounds have paid my ransom

His wounds have paid my ransom

"How Deep The Father's Love For Us"

WE CANNOT ADD TO OUR SALVATION

CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

Please be seated.

We gather today in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Lord God,

We hear the final words of Christ “it is finished”

and yet still believe there is something we must add.

Something we must do.

Something we must say.

Something we must pray.

Forgive us for believing your work is not enough to save us.

We make fig leaves of self-righteousness to cover our shame.

We tally our good deeds to make sure we’re okay.

We pray long prayers and use wide words.

We want the applause of men over the smile of a Father.

When these attempts to save ourselves fail, we are discouraged.

When we see our sin, we are disheartened.

When we know how far short we fall, we despair.

[Take this time in silence for self-examination and personal confession.]

Jesus, your grace is sufficient.

Your power is made perfect in this, our weakness.

Turn our eyes back to the cross.

Back to your victory cry of “it is finished.”

Where sins past, present and future are passed away.

Where our record is cleared and our debts paid.

Where you were forsaken and we were forgiven.

In your “it is finished,” Lord, help us stay.

OUR HEARTS ARE MADE CLEAN

SCRIPTURE OF ASSURANCE

Hebrews 10: 19-23

Please stand.

Brothers and sisters,
Since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus,
by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

SONG OF ASSURANCE

Sing To Jesus

Come and see
Look on this mystery
The Lord of the universe
Nailed to a tree
Christ our God
Spilling His holy blood
Bowing in anguish
His sacred head

Sing to Jesus, Lord of our shame
Lord of our sinful hearts
He is our great Redeemer
Sing to Jesus, honor His name
Sing of His faithfulness
Pouring His life out unto death

Come you weary
And He will give you rest
Come you who mourn
Lay on His breast

Christ who died, risen in paradise
Giver of mercy, giver of life
Sing to Jesus
His is the throne, now and forever
He is the King of heaven
Sing to Jesus we are His own
Now and forever
Sing for the love our God has shown

Sing to Jesus Lord of our shame
Lord of our sinful hearts
He is our great Redeemer
Sing to Jesus honor His name

Sing to Jesus
His is the throne, now and forever
He is the King of heaven
Sing to Jesus we are His own
Now and forever
Sing for the love our God has shown

OUR VICTORY CRY IS HIS NAME

SONG OF THANKSGIVING
There Is A Fountain

There is a fountain filled with blood
Drawn from Immanuel's veins
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains

And shall be till I die
And shall be till I die
Redeeming love has been my theme
And shall be till I die

Lose all their guilty stains
Lose all their guilty stains
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains

When this poor lisp
stamm'ring tongue
Lies silent in the grave
Then in a nobler sweeter song
I'll sing Thy pow'r to save

E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply
Redeeming love has been my theme
And shall be till I die

I'll sing Thy pow'r to save
I'll sing Thy pow'r to save
Then in a nobler sweeter song
I'll sing Thy pow'r to save

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
Third Sunday of the Month - Our Nation

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

At this time we leave the comfort of our seat, turn to our neighbors, grasp their hands, and formally or informally communicate the words, "The peace of the Lord be with you" and receive the words in turn, "And also with you." We also use this time to share God's work in our lives, greet visitors and even seek out brothers and sisters in our midst whom we may need to seek forgiveness and reconciliation.

HIS FINAL WORD: "IT IS FINISHED."

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Psalm 22: 1-8, 27-31

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? 2 O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest. 3 Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel. 4 In you our fathers trusted; they trusted, and you delivered them. 5 To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame. 6 But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by mankind and despised by the people. 7 All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads; 8 "He trusts in the Lord; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!"

27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you. 28 For kingship belongs to the Lord, and he rules over the nations. 29 All the prosperous of the earth eat and worship; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, even the one who could not keep himself alive. 30 Posterity shall serve him; it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation; 31 they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn, that he has done it.

Reader: God, we thank You for Your word.

All: The story of your grace.

33 And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” 35 And some of the bystanders hearing it said, “Behold, he is calling Elijah.” 36 And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.” 37 And Jesus uttered a loud cry and breathed his last. 38 And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. 39 And when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!” 40 There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. 41 When he was in Galilee, they followed him and ministered to him, and there were also many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

Reader: This is God’s Word.

All: And it is true!

THE LORD'S SUPPER (THE FAMILY TABLE)

At this time, we take an opportunity to unite around the family table, the table of the Lord's Supper. If you profess faith in Christ as your only confidence and qualification to join this celebration of salvation, have been baptized and examined and approved by the leadership of a Gospel-preaching church to participate, you are welcome to join in the celebration.

Please note: The bread is gluten free. The clear drink is grape juice. The darker is red wine.

When you are ready, please come forward and receive the elements. Non-communing children are also welcomed to come forward and receive a spoken blessing over them. As you return to your seat, please dispose of the empty cups in the baskets.

SILENT PRAYERS FOR THOSE NOT COMMUNING

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be unafraid by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is clear, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Those Overcome by Sin

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my need, and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race set before me, looking to you, the pioneer and perfecter of my faith. Amen.

Prayer for Covenant Children

Lord Jesus, thank you for placing me inside your family, the church. Help me more and more to know you, to love you, and to follow you as your faithful disciple. Amen.

HIS CROSS AND HIS CROWN ARE OURS

SONG OF RESPONSE
The Old Rugged Cross

In the old rugged cross
Stained with blood so divine
A wondrous beauty I see
For 'twas on that old cross
Jesus suffered and died
To pardon and sanctify me

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

To the old rugged cross
I will ever be true
Its shame and reproach gladly bear
Then He'll call me some day
To my home far away
Where His glory forever I'll share

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

BENEDICTION
Based on Psalm 100: 4-5

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
and enter his courts with praise!

Give thanks to him all your days for the work He has finished.
Bless his name forever!
